PRESS RELEASE

ANOTHER GRENADIAN ARTISTE VIDEO TO BE FEATURED ON TEMPO

Newark, NJ, USA - June 8, 2016

This coming Thursday June 9th, 2016, Grenadian-born Hector Thomas A.K.A “Mr. Legz” will premier a new single dubbed “Bessi Down” on TEMPO’s Cross Caribbean Countdown. The video will be prominently placed as the bonus video for this week’s episode, which premiers at 7:00pm Thursdays.

Mr. Legz hails from the village of Simon, St. Andrew and is noted for his ‘groovy consistency,’ serving most recently as producer of some of Grenada’s most entertaining riddims. As a soca artiste, Mr. Legz released his first single for the 2016 Carnival season on May 24th, 2016.

Influenced by the folk culture of both his home and adoptive parishes, St. Patrick and St. Andrew, and the movements of the traditional dances that he has incorporated into his onstage performance, his latest rendition “Bessi Down” is an ode to Grenada’s rich cultural heritage.

The accompanying video highlights these traditional dance movements set against some of Grenada’s most picturesque locations.

“I rate TEMPO at a very high level. It is very popular around the Caribbean. Once my music video is on TEMPO it will be like a dream come through for me. It is something I have always wanted,” said Mr. Legs. “I have been trying to enter the outside Market to market my talent, hence the reason I believe that TEMPO is an ideal platform to start exposing my work as a young artiste and producer. I am extremely passionate about the role TEMPO has played and continues to play for the artistes of the Caribbean- TEMPO is the way to go. Thank you, TEMPO!” said Mr. Legs.

“I want to personally express my deepest gratitude to Royden Beharry – both Grenada’s Youth Ambassador to the Commonwealth and TEMPO’s Caribbean Representative - for making this a possibility,” said Mr. legz.

“Grenada, let’s go. It’s time to get going. We on the Cross Caribbean countdown as BONUS once again. Rally behind him to get on the countdown.”

Another Grenadian artiste to the world!!
